PROFILE SUMMARY

Professional Experience

Teddy Srour joined Winick Realty Group in 2016 as a canvasser in the company's Agent Training Program, quickly moving into the position of Associate Director. He came to the company after graduating from Syracuse University with a double major in Management and Real Estate.

A native of New York City, Mr. Srour grew up surrounded by real estate as he would often accompany his grandfather to buildings owned by his family's company, Smart Realty. His interest in real estate grew further over the course a mentorship at CPEX, where he was part of a prestigious group of college students chosen to canvass and catalog properties in Brooklyn and Queens on behalf of the company's retail sales team.

Mr. Srour also interned at Durst Fetner Residential, where he worked directly under the lead analyst. In this position, Mr. Srour had the opportunity to sit in on investor meetings and phone calls, as well as work on pro formas.
