PROFILE SUMMARY

Professional Experience

In 2023, Oliver Stern joined WRG after previously working in commercial real estate.

He graduated from Boston University School of Hospitality and is now focused on tenant representation throughout New York City. Oliver has always had a fascination with real estate and retail and stays updated on the latest developments in and around New York City, including new store openings and trendy restaurants. He describes himself as ambitious, determined, and a people person, qualities that will help him excel in his new role at WRG.

When not working, Oliver enjoys spending time with loved ones and supporting his favorite team, The New York Knicks
